

THE JOURNEY · A NATIONAL INTER-SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP

Intelligence & Science

CONTEST · 2026

“We measure not just the heights reached, but the strength gained in the climb.”

PRINCIPALS & HEADS OF INSTITUTIONS

A Formal Invitation

We'd be delighted to welcome your school to the GCS Intelligence & Science Contest 2026.

It's a chance for your students to think hard, test themselves against bright young minds from across the country, and be recognised for what they can do. Everything starts with a simple written round at your own campus and builds, step by step, towards the online championship finals — and we'd love to see your students there.

LOGIC · REASONING · APTITUDE

Intelligence Contest

For the quick thinkers. Puzzles, patterns and problems that reward a sharp eye and a curious, restless mind.

CONCEPTS · CURIOSITY · DISCOVERY

Science Contest

For the endlessly curious. The ideas, questions and “how does that actually work?” thinking that shapes real problem-solvers.

REGISTRATION CLOSES

Friday, 02 October 2026

Enrol your students early.

PARTICIPATION FEE

Rs. 1,000

Per contest, per student.

FOR THE HOST INSTITUTE

Contest Guidelines

Registration · Conduct · Procedures · Participant Rules

REGISTRATION & FEE SUBMISSION

- A participation fee of Rs. 1,000 per contest, per student is collected by the host institute.
- Deposit the total fee into the official GCS contest account, or provide a bank draft / pay order in the company's favour.

FEE DEPOSIT ACCOUNT

Global Champs Services (Private) Limited
Soneri Bank Ltd · Gulberg Greens, Islamabad

A/C NO. 031020016772411

IBAN PK19 SONE 0031 0200 1677 2411

- Submit the completed, signed registration form with all annexures by tracked courier to the Event Manager.

EXAM ADMINISTRATION & SUPERVISION

- The contest is held at the participant's own institute; the Head serves as Chief Examiner.
- Give invigilators the GCS Guidelines and schedule at least two days before the contest.
- Appoint invigilators from teaching faculty — one per 25 participants, at least one per room.
- The Chief Examiner assigns seats; unregistered students may not sit without prior GCS consent.

CONDUCT DURING THE CONTEST

- Only registered candidates and authorised supervisors may be in the exam room.
- Invigilators monitor discreetly; their duty is to prevent copying and unfair practice.
- No help on content — invigilators may not explain or interpret any word or question.

SUSPECTED MALPRACTICE

- Report suspected cheating to the Chief Examiner at once, without confronting the student.
- Confiscate unauthorised materials; the candidate continues, and the incident is noted on the attendance sheet and reported after the exam.

CONTEST MATERIALS & HANDLING

- Papers are couriered to the Head at least three days before; report non-receipt immediately.
- Store materials under lock and key; envelopes are opened only by the Chief Examiner on contest day.
- Report any broken or tampered seal at once.
- Photocopying papers (for shortages) needs permission; copying answer sheets is forbidden.
- Return all unused materials; mark absentees "ABSENT" and include their sheets in the shipment.

CONTEST SCHEDULE

- The contest begins nationwide at 10:30 AM sharp.
- Institutes may not alter the schedule without explicit GCS authorisation.
- In unavoidable circumstances, contact the GCS Program Coordinator immediately.

STARTING THE CONTEST

- Verify the official attendance sheet; only listed candidates may participate.
- Prepare the hall: cover teaching aids, space desks one metre apart, provide a wall clock and a start / end-time board.
- Open envelopes before participants; allow five minutes to fill particulars (no answers yet).
- Read all printed instructions aloud; announce the official start time and duration.

CONCLUDING THE CONTEST

- Give audible warnings at five and one minute remaining.
- On "time up", all writing stops — no further changes.
- Collect all sheets before anyone leaves; complete the front page in BLOCK LETTERS.
- Invigilators sign the attendance sheet; sort answer sheets by level.
- Seal sheets in the provided envelope and courier the same day; report any delay.

INSPECTION BY GCS

- GCS may conduct unannounced inspections at any centre.
- Cooperate fully; ask representatives for valid ID before they enter the hall.
- Non-compliant arrangements may void the contest and cancel the institute's registration.

PARTICIPANT INSTRUCTIONS

- Follow all invigilator instructions promptly.
- Arrive at least 20 minutes early; those over 30 minutes late may be barred (Chief Examiner's discretion).
- Bring your own blue or black pens and pencils; instruments must carry no extra writing.
- No communication with other candidates.
- Do not leave the hall unescorted, including for the washroom.
- No unauthorised materials or electronic devices.
- Stay seated; raise your hand for attention.
- Do not remove any sheets, papers or supplied materials from the room.
